WHY STUDY WITH US?

At Lennox College, our goal is to equip you with the right skills to help you achieve your career goals – in today's competitive business world, you need more than just the knowledge you gain from the course topics. In addition to quality courses and flexible learning, you'll also get:

PREPARATION FOR THE REAL WORLD

We make the learning real for our students to learn a defined skill-set. The course will test your understanding and skills against case studies and expose you to real-world examples. The skills and knowledge gained from this course can be transferred and applied in your workplace. This ability to analyse, make connections and draw conclusions is what will set you apart from others in the eyes of employers.

ALL THE SUPPORT YOU NEED, WHEN YOU NEED IT

As you complete your course, you'll easily be able to contact your dedicated student advisor who will guide you through the course using your preferred communication method – Skype, email, phone or Facebook. For the trickier questions and subject matter expertise, you can book a phone or Skype session with a Lennox College trainer.

UNDERTAKE A TEAM MANAGEMENT PROFILE

In an exclusive partnership with Team Management Systems Worldwide, Lennox students participating in this qualification complete a Team Management Profile®. The Team Management Profile®, and online app toolkit will help you understand your and your colleagues' work style and team dynamics, so you can demonstrate you have the soft skills that employers demand.

There are over 20,000 accredited members globally, and Team Management Systems clients include leading global organisations such as AMP, Sony, Qantas, HP, KPMG, PWC and ANZ.

CAREER OPTIONS

There are endless possibilities in what you can achieve post graduation, with the advanced strategic leadership and management skills you will possess.

Graduates typically pursue roles including mid and senior management positions, leading larger teams and managing more complex projects. Many graduates also choose to apply these advanced management skills to their own business.

KEY SKILLS YOU'LL GAIN

This course will teach you a whole range of management and leadership skills, at a higher, more strategic level than the Diploma – some key ones include:

- Develop and implement strategic business plans
- Develop and implement strategic marketing plans
- Manage and lead organisation-wide change
- Manage innovation in the organisation
